

The essential check list for packing for your Wild Kiwi tour in New Zealand

The below items are our suggested items to pack for your trip to New Zealand for your Wild Kiwi tour. Remember, you may need to substitute items to suit your personal travel style.

	✓	#		✓	#		✓	#
Documents			Passport			Itinerary			Credit/Debit Card
			Drivers Licence			Photocopy of Passport			Travel Insurance
			NZD Currency			Emergency Contact #'s			Travel Card
			Boarding Pass

Electronics			Mobile / Cell Phone			GoPro			Headphones
			Phone Charger			Tablet / Kindle			Headphone Splitter
			Travel / Universal Adapter			Tablet Charger			USB Power Charger
			Camera & Charger

Toiletries			Shampoo/conditioner			Shaving Cream / Razor			Medicine **
			Toothbrush & Toothpaste			Mosquito repellent			Hand sanitiser
			Hair Product			Sunscreen			Sml packet of tissues
			Deodorant (Roll on)			Brush /Comb			Lip Balm

Clothing			Underwear			Hiking boots			Hat & Sunglasses
			Water/windproof Jacket			Thick hiking socks			Thermals
			Jeans / Chinos			Swimwear & Flip flops			Gym gear
			T-shirts (long and short)			Vest			Scarf/gloves

Miscellaneous			Backpack			Power board
			Travel insurance			Poncho
			Turkish/Travel Towel			Small Umbrella
			Ear Plugs (for snorers!)

** Medicine includes things like Panadol, Moisturiser (in case of windburn/sunburn), antihistamines (in case of allergic reaction), small tube of aloe vera or savlon (in case you get bitten), band aids (for blisters)

*** We took a power board with us as the accommodation is shared and typically only one or two power points. Depending on how many devices you have to charge in the evening, a power board may be a good way around it